

The Times Leader/CLARK VAN ORDEN

Ridge visits, announces jobs

Dignitaries gathered and the Coughlin High School marching band played Monday afternoon when Gov. Tom Ridge visited Wilkes-Barre. Ridge announced the creation of about 150 new jobs at GUARD Insurance Group, a workers compensation insurance company. Ridge also said his administration has awarded a $100,000 grant to GUARD for job training.